(1390=100)

The Consumer Price Index (CPI) increased 0.4 percent in Mehr 1395¹. The index level of 248.0 was 9.3 percent higher than in Mehr 1394.

For the first seven months of 1395, the consumer price index rose 8.3 percent compared to the similar period in 1394.

The inflation rate has advanced 8.7 percent over the last twelve months.

The food and beverages index went down 0.4 percent in Mehr, largely due to the decreases in the indices for arboreal fruits except citrus (except pear and date) by 8.2 percent, citrus (except orange and lime) 13.1 percent, poultry 12.0 percent, egg 2.8 percent, fish (from the Persian Gulf and the Oman Sea) 2.7 percent, root vegetables (except onion) 3.4 percent, and sugar and sugar lump 1.8 percent. Within the food and beverages group, increases in the indices for rice by 2.8 percent, livestock meat 2.3 percent, leafy green vegetables 5.6 percent, ground vegetables 3.6 percent, orange 3.1 percent, “beverages” and “oils and fats” each 1.0 percent, candy, chocolate, jam and honey 0.9 percent, milk products 0.4 percent, pulses 1.3 percent, lime 4.3 percent, biscuit, cake and cookies 0.6 percent, nuts 0.4 percent, and cultured fish 1.4 percent were also considerable in this month.

The index for tobacco decreased 0.1 percent in Mehr, reflecting 0.4 percent decrease in the index for domestic cigarettes.

The clothing and footwear index increased 1.0 percent, mostly as a result of the increases in the indices for ready to wear clothing by 1.6 percent, and clothing materials 0.3 percent. Within this group, decreases in the indices for footwear by 0.5 percent, and tailoring, cleaning and laundering wage 0.1 percent were also considerable in this month.

During this month, the housing, water, electricity, gas and other fuels index went up 0.5 percent which was attributed to the advances of the indices for “rental equivalence of owner occupied houses” and “rent of residential houses” each by 0.5 percent, and maintenance and repair services of the dwelling 0.6 percent.

The furnishings, household equipment and routine household maintenance index rose 0.6 percent, largely due to the increases in the indices for “household appliances” and “goods and services for routine household maintenance” each by 0.9 percent, household textiles 1.0 percent, “glassware, tableware and household utensils” and “carpets and other floor coverings” each 0.4 percent.

The index for health increased 0.6 percent, mostly as a result of the increases in the indices for medical, paramedical and dental services by 0.6 percent, hospital services 0.5 percent, and medical products, appliances and equipment 0.9 percent.

The transport index went up 0.5 percent in Mehr that was principally attributed to the increases in the indices for passenger transport by road by 1.0 percent, personal transport vehicles 0.4 percent, and operation of personal transport equipment 0.3 percent.

The index for communication was unchanged in Mehr.

The recreation and culture index turned down 0.6 percent, largely due to the decreases in the indices for package holidays by 3.2 percent, and audio-visual, photographic and information processing equipment 0.2 percent. Within this group, increases in the indices for recreational and cultural services by 1.1 percent, other recreational items and equipment 0.5 percent, and stationery 0.3 percent were also considerable in this month.

The education index advanced 7.8 percent over this month, mostly as a result of the increase in the index for private schools and supplementary courses tuition fees by 15.8 percent.

The index for restaurants and hotels rose 0.8 percent, mainly due to the advances in the indices for “food away from home” and “catering services” each by 0.8 percent, and accommodation services 0.7 percent.

The miscellaneous goods and services index increased 0.3 percent in this month. Increases in the indices for personal care by 0.5 percent, funeral expenses 3.8 percent, nursery school tuition fees 2.8 percent, and personal effects 0.4 percent were the major reasons for this rise.
