Export Price Index in Iran

Mehr 1391

(1383 = 100)

The Export Price Index (XPI) went up sharply by 104.8 percent in Mehr 1391* following a 9.3 percent rise in Shahrivar 1391. The index level of 582.0 was 155.3 percent higher than in Mehr 1390.

During the first seven months of the current Iranian year, the XPI increased 34.1 percent compared to the similar period in 1390.

The XPI has advanced 25.9 percent over the last twelve months.

In Mehr, the animal products group index rose 99.7 percent.

The group index for vegetable products advanced 84.6 percent, which was principally attributed to the increases of the indexes for pistachio, saffron, raisin and date.

The animal or vegetable fats and oils group index had no change.

Rises in the indexes of tomato paste and beverage mainly accounted for the increase in the prepared foodstuffs, beverages and tobacco group index by 107.9 percent.

As a result of increasing in the indexes for propane, butane, tar, paraffine wax and cement, the mineral products group index moved up 141.9 percent.

The products of the chemical or allied industries group index increased 85.8 percent mostly due to the advances in the indexes for benzene and paraxylene.

* The index is computed on the Iranian Rial basis. In this month, the free-market currency exchange-rate is used instead of reference exchange-rate and caused an abrupt increase in the index.

In the mentioned month, the exchange rates of Dollar and Euro increased 151.7 percent and 152.8 percent, respectively.

The group index for plastics and articles thereof, rubber and articles thereof went up 62.4 percent.

The 144.2 percent rise in the skins and leather and articles thereof group index was particularly due to the increase in the index for processed sheep skin.

In this month, the wood and articles of wood group index rose 37.0 percent.

The group index for textiles and textile articles moved up 103.8 percent. Increase in the index for hand-woven carpet was the major reason for this advance.

The footwear group index was unchanged.

The articles of stone group index advanced 115.0 percent mainly due to the rises in the indexes for building stone and tile.

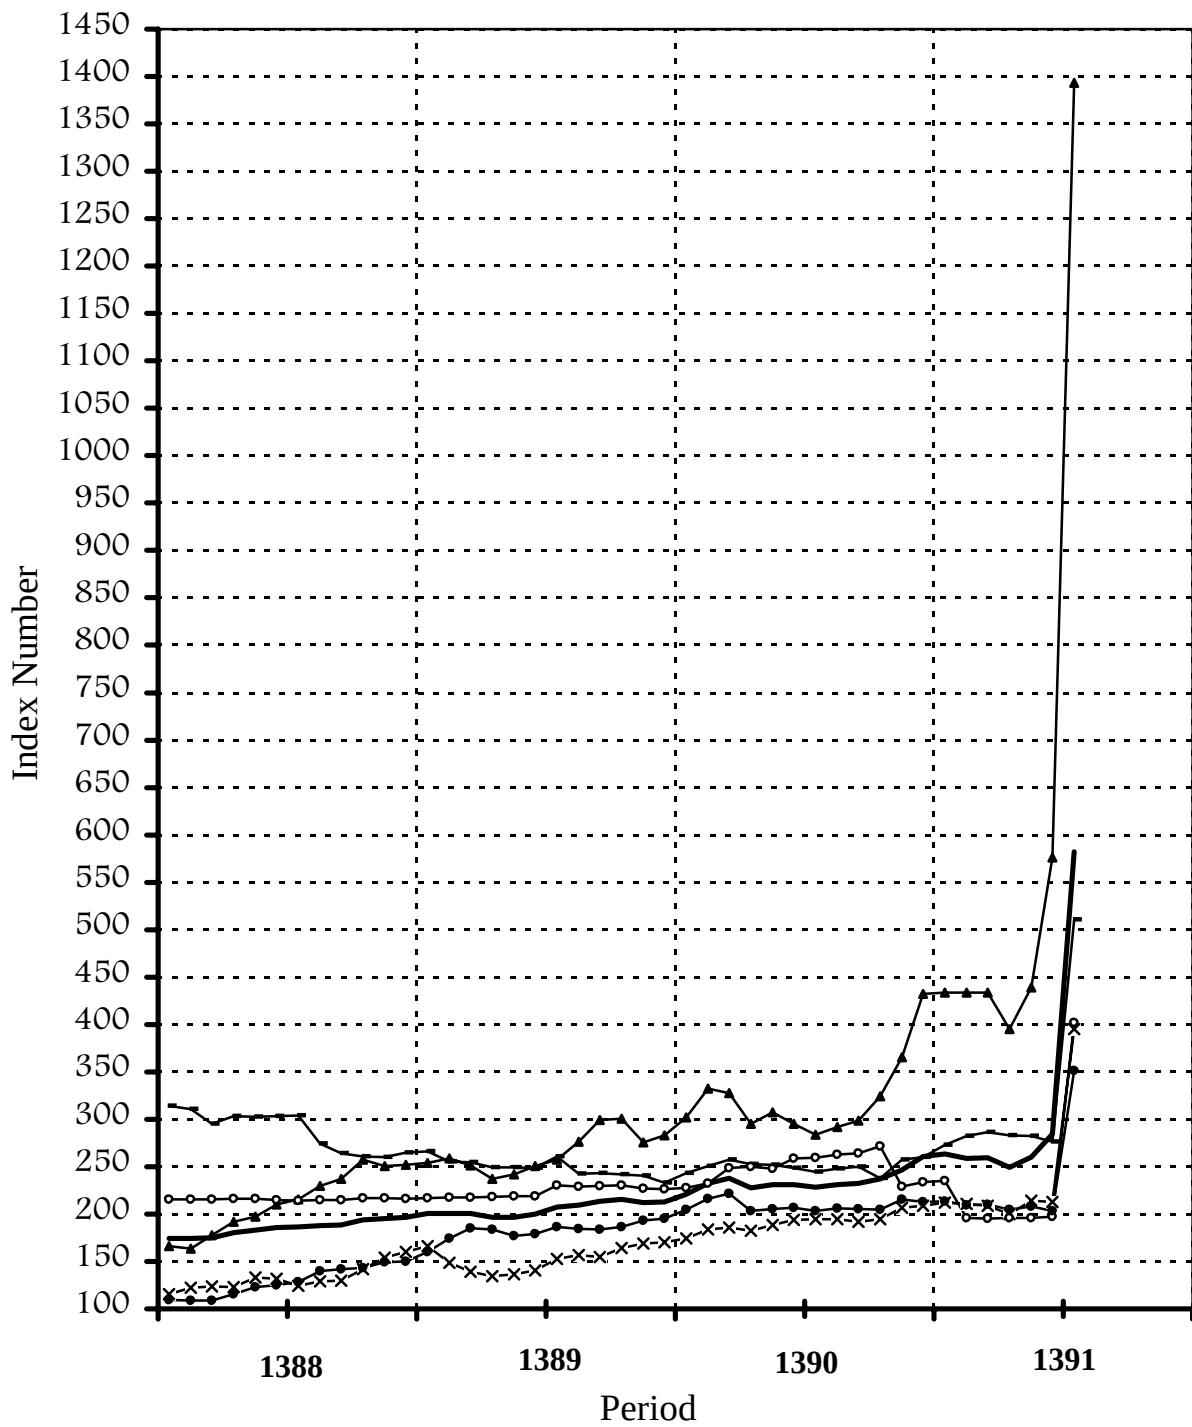

The 72.7 percent increase in the base metals and articles of base metal group index was led by advances in the indexes for hot coil iron and aluminium ingot.

During Mehr, the group index for machinery and mechanical appliances, electrical equipment and the group index for vehicles and associated transport equipment rose 4.9 percent and 20.2 percent, respectively.

The optical, precision and medical instruments group index remained unchanged.
