Export Price Index in Iran

Mehr 1389

(1383 = 100)

The Export Price Index (XPI) went up 4.0 percent in Mehr 1389*. The index level of 207.6 was 11.3 percent higher than in Mehr 1388.

During the first seven months of the current Iranian year, the XPI increased 11.4 percent compared to the similar period in 1388.

The XPI has risen 9.3 percent over the last twelve months.

The animal products group index was unchanged.

The vegetable products group index increased 4.8 percent which was attributed to the advance of the indexes for pistachio and date. In this group, the indexes for saffron, raisin and almond declined.

As a result of rising in the indexes for sun flower oil, soya oil and palm oil, the group index for animal or vegetable fats and oils advanced 11.8 percent.

The prepared foodstuffs, beverages and tobacco group index went up 0.8 percent.

During Mehr, the mineral products group index increased 2.7 percent which was mainly due to the advance in the indexes for propane, butane, zinc-oxide concentrate and cement. Within this group, decreases in the indexes for paraffin and iron stone were also considerable.

The index group for products of the chemical or allied industries rose 8.5 percent. Increases in the indexes for sulfur, ammonia, paraxylene and methanol were the major factors for this advance.

* The index is compiled by Rial prices and during the reported period compared to the previous month, the exchange rate of Dollar decreased 0.3 percent but the exchange rate of Euro increased 6.9 percent.

The plastics and articles thereof, rubber and articles thereof group index moved up 0.9 percent.

The skins and leather and articles thereof group index and the wood and articles of wood group index declined 0.3 percent and 0.1 percent, respectively.

The textiles and textile articles group index increased 5.2 percent.

The footwear group index and the optical, precision and medical instruments group index were unchanged.

The articles of stone group index declined 0.1 percent.

The index for base metals and articles of base metal group went up 4.3 percent, largely due to the rise in the indexes for hot coil iron, aluminium ingot, cathode copper and galvanized pipe. In this group, the index for steel profile declined.

The group index for machinery and mechanical appliances, electrical equipment fell 0.3 percent.

The 1.4 percent increase in the group index of vehicles and associated transport equipment was principally due to the advance in the index for radiator of automobile. Within this group, decline in the index for tractor was noticeable.
