Export Price Index in Iran

Mehr 1390

(1383 = 100)

The Export Price Index (XPI) went down 1.4 percent in Mehr 1390*. The XPI had no change in Shahrivar 1390. The index level of 228.0 was 9.8 percent higher than in Mehr 1389.

During the first seven months of the current Iranian year, the XPI increased 14.7 percent compared to the similar period in 1389.

The XPI has advanced 13.1 percent over the last twelve months.

In Mehr, the animal products group index declined 0.3 percent.

The group index for vegetable products fell 1.6 percent. Decreases in the indexes for saffron, pistachio, raisin and cumin were the major factors for the mentioned decline.

The animal or vegetable fats and oils group index went down 1.4 percent, which was principally attributed to the decline in the indexes for soya oil and palm oil.

As a result of increasing in the indexes for beverage and biscuit and wafer, the prepared foodstuffs, beverages and tobacco group index moved up 1.3 percent. Within the mentioned group, the index for cake decreased.

Decreases in the indexes for butane, propane, paraffin wax and cement mainly caused 3.8 percent decline in the mineral products group index. In this group, the index for tar advanced.

* The index is compiled by Rial prices and during the reported period compared to the previous month, the exchange rate of Dollar increased 0.2 percent but the exchange rate of Euro decreased 2.9 percent.

During Mehr, the products of the chemical or allied industries group index rose 0.4 percent.

The group index for plastics and articles thereof, rubber and articles thereof went down 1.2 percent. Decreases in the indexes for poly styrene and poly ethylene were the main reasons for this decline.

The 1.7 percent decrease in the group index of skins and leather and articles thereof was particularly due to the fall in the index for processed sheep skin.

The wood and articles of wood group index moved up 2.4 percent mainly due to the rise in the index for chipboard.

The textiles and textile articles group index increased 0.2 percent.

As a result of decreasing in the index for safety shoe, the footwear group index went down 2.9 percent.

The articles of stone group index went up 0.3 percent.

The group index of base metals and articles of base metal fell 1.6 percent mostly due to the decrease in the indexes for aluminium ingot and hot coil iron.

The indexes of the machinery and mechanical appliances, electrical equipment group, vehicles and associated transport equipment and optical group, precision and medical instruments group were unchanged.
